

Life just got more opulent

The city's glitterati got together as Logix Group, a real estate development company hosted a grand event. It was a curtain raiser for LOGIX CITY CENTER – a retail & entertainment destination, with an exclusive preview of the FIRST SUPERPLEX by PVR in India, at The Leela Place, in the Capital. Talking about the event, Shakti Nath, CMD Of Logix Group said, "We are pleased to host the preview of FIRST SUPERPLEX by PVR today at Logix City Center, showcasing a 15-screen cinema with Gold Class, mainstream as well as one of the largest IMAX screens in Asia. It would also house the first 4DX and first Playhouse concept especially designed for kids. Well known national and international brands in fashion, food and entertainment will also be present." Talking about this destination that is located in the heart of Noida, next to the City Center metro station in Sector 32, Vikram Nath, Director Logix Group further added, "With a total investment of around ₹1000. It would play the unique role of a neighbourhood centre yet an integrated destination of approx. 1.5 million sq. ft. for retail, entertainment, offices & hospitality."

Those who were spotted at the do included entrepreneur Ajay Bijli, fashion designer Rina Dhaka, among others. HTC
