

MAKING A POINT: Pia Trivedi (L) and Tina Chatwal

<< TETE-A-TETE WITH THE DESIGNERS:
(L-R) Chandni Nath Israni, Rina Dhaka and Manish Malhotra

Vikram Nath

(L-R) Timsy Anand, Shivani Wazir Pasrich and Meena Nath

Stylish start to the show

SUITED UP: (L-R) Tikka Shatruijit Singh, Francois Richier and Sanjay Passi

Celebrating their association with designer Manish Malhotra, the Logix group hosted a pre-show get-together and a post-show celebratory party on Day 5 of the ongoing Shree Raj Mahal Jewellers India Couture Week in association with Logix group, presented by FDCL. Chandni Nath Israni, director, Logix Group and Meena Nath, director, Logix Group – the women of the Nath family – were the perfect hostesses as they moved around, greeting and mingling with their friends and the fashion fraternity. Manish also dropped in for a bit to meet his hosts and guests before rushing backstage for his show. After the show, everyone was seen dancing and celebrating the successful event, with toasts full of sparkly drinks and speeches.

Shakti Nath, CMD, Logix Group said, "We are pleased to launch Logix City Center, a new benchmark in commercial projects in Delhi – NCR, during the India Couture Week 2014. Spread over 6 acres, Logix

City Centre will have over 7 lakh sq ft of retail and entertainment, providing global shopping experience to guests."

Chandni added, "City Centre Mall will provide a complete range of apparel and lifestyle accessories along with many entertainment options. Destination Couture will celebrate India's everlasting love for international luxury and fine taste in high end couture."

Vikram Nath, director, Logix Group, was also spotted at the party.

— Aanchal.Tuli@timesgroup.com