

Couture week gets starry

Kangna Ranaut

Malaika Arora Khan

There have might been little rain in the capital, but it's started to rain style and stars. The Shree Raj Mahal India Couture Week in association with Logix group, presented by FDCI, got off to a starry start on Tuesday with Rani Mukerji in attendance on Day 1, and on Day 2, Kangna Ranaut provided the star power when she walked for Anju Modi. Joining her were the sizzling Malaika Arora Khan and the lovely Nimrat Kaur (still on a high after The Lunchbox), walking for Rina Dhaka. With lots of speculation about a starrier week ahead, we can hardly wait!
